

Course Syllabus: MA in InterCultural Management (ICM)

1 Module content

Course	MA in InterCultural Management (ICM) - 2 nd year
University, Faculty	University of Burgundy Europe, Languages and Communication Faculty
Module title	Thesis Seminar
Lecturers	David Bousquet, Alex Frame, Romée Jager, Aude Chauviat, Théo Aiolfi
Objectives	This seminar is the continuation of the research methods class in the first semester and the thesis seminar in the second semester. It focuses on helping students finalise their thesis, in the writing stages, and prepares them for the oral defence.
Number of hours	10
Semester	2
Number of students	Around 15

2 Evaluation

Evaluation methods	Thesis (50-70 pages) Attendance and participation in class are also taken into account
Weighting	100%
Examination types	Continuous assessment

3 Teaching methods

Pedagogy	Interactive seminar
Teaching activities	Reading and discussion, student presentations, group work & brainstorming

4 Outline of classes

1. Presentation of thesis topics to first-year students
2. Open session to discuss progress and plan work left to be done
3. PhD programmes
4. Open session to discuss progress and checklist for finalising writing process.
5. Preparing thesis defences

5 References

See Moodle page when applicable.